MEETING OF THE TRADES LEAGUE

Hon. Lyman Gage the Principal Speaker at Philadelphia.

THE SECRETARY TALKS ON FINANCE

W. J. Bryan Is Quoted and Many of His Mis-Statements Are Corrected. The Party Responsible For the Gold Monetary Standard.

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.—The seventh armual meeting of the trades league of Philadelphia was held tonight in the Academy of Music, at which the principal speaker was Hon. Lyman J. Gage, secretary of the treasury. In holding tonight's meeting the league makes a departure from its usual custom of transacting purely routine business at its yearly sessions. The purpose in do-ing this is to enable the members to be addressed on subjects kindred to their association by prominent men. In stating this, W. W. Foulkroad, president of the league, introduced Secretary Gage. He was warmly received and held the attention of the large audience throughout. He spoke on the subject and his remarks were of "Finance," frequently punctuated with applause. Secretary Gage, by way of introductich, saic

There are two opinions on the money question now, more or less firmly held by those who entertain them. The one supports the re-establishment of silver in the privilege of free coinage at the mint at the ratio of 16 to 1, irrespective of all consequences, near or remote, and without regard to our membership in the family of nations. The other opinion 's that the present gold standard should be maintained at all costs until by international agreement the present disparity between the commertained by fact and he cited from sta-cial and the legal ratio of silver to gold shall be made to dissippear.

The argument of the 16 to 1 advo-cates, Secretary Gage continued, is that of commodities have fallen and wages have been reduced.

The statement that wages have been reduced, the speaker said, is not sus-tistics of the commissioner of labor to show that within the period of 1872 to 1821, while prices of commodities have fallen 271/2 per cent., wages have increased an average of ten per cent., the wage-earner thus reaping a double advantage by the greater purchasing power of the wages earned.

REFERS TO BRYAN.

Referring to a recent speech of William J. Bryan, in which the latter said the dally papers have items of news arranged under two heads-the forma-tion of trusts and the reduction of wages," the secretary said Mr. Bryan cited no example of trusts, but referred to one industry in New England in which by reason of special conditions a reduction in the wage scale was under debate. He failed to state, continued the secretary, that only a few weeks ago the worsted manufacturers in Rhede Island granted an increase of 20 per cent, in the pay of 25,000 opera-tives and that in Philadelphia numerous woolen mills have restored the increased wages of 1893.

Mr. Bryan, he continued, cannot point to one instance of an advance in wages between the date of the Chicago convention of 1896 and the November election of that year, while since the election many thousand idle men have obtained employment and many of those who had employment have received increases in their wages. In support of this industrial revival, Secretary Gage instanced the window glass industry, the rolling mills in Alabama, Maryland and Ohio; the coke industry of Western Penusylvania, the pottery industry of Trenton, and, he added, in nearly all iron and steel industries.

Secretary Gage also took Mr. Bryan to task for having recently said that "Our enemies boast that they have buried bimetallism."

The secretary said: 'His enemies, if he means the Republican party, are not boasting that they have buried bimetallism. They proclaim themselves its friend: they approve it in their platform. The political head of that party has been active to secure it under the only conditions by which it can be maintained. namely, international agreement, with open mints to both silver and gold."

THE GOLD STANDARD.

The secretary also quoted Mr. Bryan es having said that the gold standard was adopted without any party asking for it, and in reply to this, the secretary said Thomas H. Benton, the leader of the Democratic party in 1834, had introduced a bill in the senate which was passed and which restored gold to our currency system and made it the monetary standard. This wise act, he said, was signed President Andrew Jackson, the Democratic idol.

The remainder of the secretary's speech was devoted to argument in favor of improvements in our financial system, and also in support of the recommendation in his annual report to congress to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard and remove as far as possible doubts and fears on that point, and thus strength-

AFTER NINETEEN YEARS.

An Important Law Suit of Standing Settled.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 25 .- A case that has been in litigation for nineteen years was amicably settled yesterday. C. D. Huff, executor of the estate of John W. Huff, was the plaintiff, and the heirs of Elisha Atherton the defendants.

The case involved nineteen acres of land in Kingston township, valued at about $30,000. In 1847 Elisha Atherton deeded to John W. Huff eighty acres of land (more or less) situated back of Maitby. Huff held possession of the land under the deed for a period of thirty-three years, or until 1880, when the Atherton heirs claimed that under their interpretation of the description a nineteen-acre lot occupied by Huff was not covered by the deed of 1847 and they brought sult against Huff to recover. The case was tried in the local courts and Huff won. The Atherton heirs then carried the case up and the Supreme court ordered a new trial, which was held in due time, and the Athertons won.

Huff then brought a new suit against the Athertons to recover possession, and the same has been on trial before Judge George S. Purdy, of Honesdale, specially presiding, since Tuesday of last week. The work of hearing the evidence took up all the time until Friday evening, when the jury was excused until Monday morning in order to alow the attorneys time to argue a number of law points. When court recon vened yesterday, however, it was announced that a settlement had been

Under the terms of the settlement Huff is to get 74 acres of the original eighty acres and the Athertons to pay all the costs and also to pay Huff's lawyers. Thus of the nineteen acres in gold having appreciated in value, prices | litigation Huff gets thirteen and the Atherton heirs six acres. The land is at present under lease by the Atherton heirs, but they guarantee that the coal has not been taken out, if so, to pay

The litigation arose over the indefinite description of the boundaries of the land conveyed by the deed made in 1847, which gave an important line as starting at a point on improved property. The point has since disappeared, and as the nineteen-acre tract was between two parcels of improved property, it became a very important ques-tion upon which piece of improved property the line started.

John W. Huff, the original plaintiff in the suit compromised yesterday, died about five years ago, and the action has since been continued by his son, C. D. Huff, as executor.

WOMEN FIGHT FOR LIBERTY.

Accused of Shoplifting, They Boldly Attack the Detective.

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.-Charged with hoolifting in Litt Brothers' store, Ida Taylor and Lizzie Smith were yesterday arrested by Detective Jekel and held in $800 bail for trial. Both women are colored and the detective followed them from the store to a small alley leading from Filbert street. When he tried to arrest them both women sprang at him and pulled his hair and scratch-

Their screams attracted a big crowd of people, including several Sixth dis-trict policemen, who helped the detective to secure his prisoners.

TRAMPS RUSH FOR WORK.

Sheriff Had to Bolt Doors to Keep Them Out of the Stone Yard.

Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 25,-There are about 150 tramps in the Franklin county jail. Recently the county commissioners determined to put them to work breaking stone in the jail yard. The tramps stubbornly refused, and the matter was practically abandoned. Today, to the surprise of all, the tramps showed a desire to work, and the sheriff was obliged to lock the doors to keep more from getting out into the yard than he could handle at one time. They will be worked in relays on alternate days.

DEATH STAYED A HELPING HAND.

Workman Fatally Hurt at His New Post of Duty.

Doylestown, Pa., Jan. 25.-Albert Wildman, aged 30, was fatally injured last night at the Newtown Electric Light plant, where he had secured employment, intending to enter upon his duties this morning. While watching the men at work he was asked to assist in removing a belt from a large pulley. A rapidly revolving wheel struck him on the head, hurling him against the machinery and crushing his skull.

Pig Iron Production.

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.—The total produc-tion of pig iron in the United States for 1897, as shown by complete returns re-ceived from the manufacturers by the American Iron and Steel association, was 9,652,680 tons, an increase of 1,029,553 tons as compared with 1896. The production of Bessemer pig iron in 1897 was 5,795,-534 tons, against 4,654,955 tons in 1896. The production of basic pig iron in 1897 was 556,391 tons, against 2395,493 tons in 1898. The production of basic pig iron in 1897 was distributed as follows: New York and New Jersey, 79,641 tons; Allegheny county, Pa., 295,548 tons; other counties in Pennsylvania, 84,520 tons; Maryland, Virginia and Alabama, 97,562 tons; Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin and Missouri, 29,720 tons. American Iron and Steel association, was DANGEROUS DAYS. Advs. Under This Head One Cent a Word.

They Are Upon Us and They Need to Be Watched Very Carefully.

Of all times, of all seasons of the year, this is the most dangerous. It is a time this is the most dangerous. It is a time when the air is filled with disease, when the wind wafts pneumonia. The deaths from this one trouble alone are simply alarming and in spite of all warnings they seem to be increasing. Pneumonia comes suddenly; it acts quickly; it far too often results fatally. It is all the move dangerous because it comes unannounced. A tickling in the throat, a tightness of the chest and a difficulty in breathing, an extreme feeling of languor, all may mean the beginning of guor, all may mean the beginning of pneumonla. Being so sudden a disease it requires above all things prompt treatment. If a prempt reaction is brought arbout the danger may be over; if not, the end may be near. Any physician who is called in a case of pneumonia pre-scribes stimulants instantly, such as pure whiskey—all else is useless.

For years the standard, the reliable, the one whiskey which can be depended on has been Duffy's Pure Mait. It has saved the lives of thousands who were on the high road to pneumonia in its worst form, and it has both prevented and cured the worst forms of pulmonary trouble. It stands unrivaled. Be sure and secure Duffy's, no matter how much you may be urged to try a cheaper one.

MISMATED LOVERS IN JAIL.

Married Prenches Runs Away With

Another Man's Wife. Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 25 .- Upon their arrival this evening from Allentown Edward Miller, superintendent of the Industrial Rescue Mission, and Mrs. Elmira Bretz, wife of Wesley B. Bretz, a leading citizen of West Fairview, Cumberland county, Pa., were taken into custody for adultery. Mrs. Bretz, it is alleged, deserted her husband and everal grown daughters.

Miller and the woman registered 'as Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller, at a hotel in Millersville, this county, on Dec. 15, where she remained until Saturday last, during that time receiving frequent visits from her supposed husand. Saturday they went to Allentown, where they stayed as man and wife. Miller laughed when told what was wanted for, and at once admitted "the game was up." The wo-man was arrested in Miller's room at the Aurora House. Both are in jail for a hearing.

Miller is a former resident of Colum-ia and his wife is now at Duncannon. He has been posing as a very religious man, and on the Wednesday evening preceding the trip to Allentown he conducted religious services at a church

HOLY WAR IN PERSIA

Mohammedan Priests Incite the Populace Against Christians.

Carlinville, Ill., Jan. 25 .- Joseph Badel, a Persian missionary student at Blackburn university, in this city, has received information from Ocroomiah, Persia, that a holy war has been proclaimed by the Mohammedan priests in a nearby village against the Nestorian Christians, which has caused many of the latter to flee, and a band of forty have gone to Tabriz to place themselves under the protection of the Russian consulate.

Mr. Badel's cousin, an influential nan, was tortured to death in the bagaar and his home was burned. Others are in prison awaiting trial. The gov ernor general sent a detachment of roops to preserve order, but atrocities committed by the soldiers are worse ven than those of the populace.
